

Persona: Lily Flemming

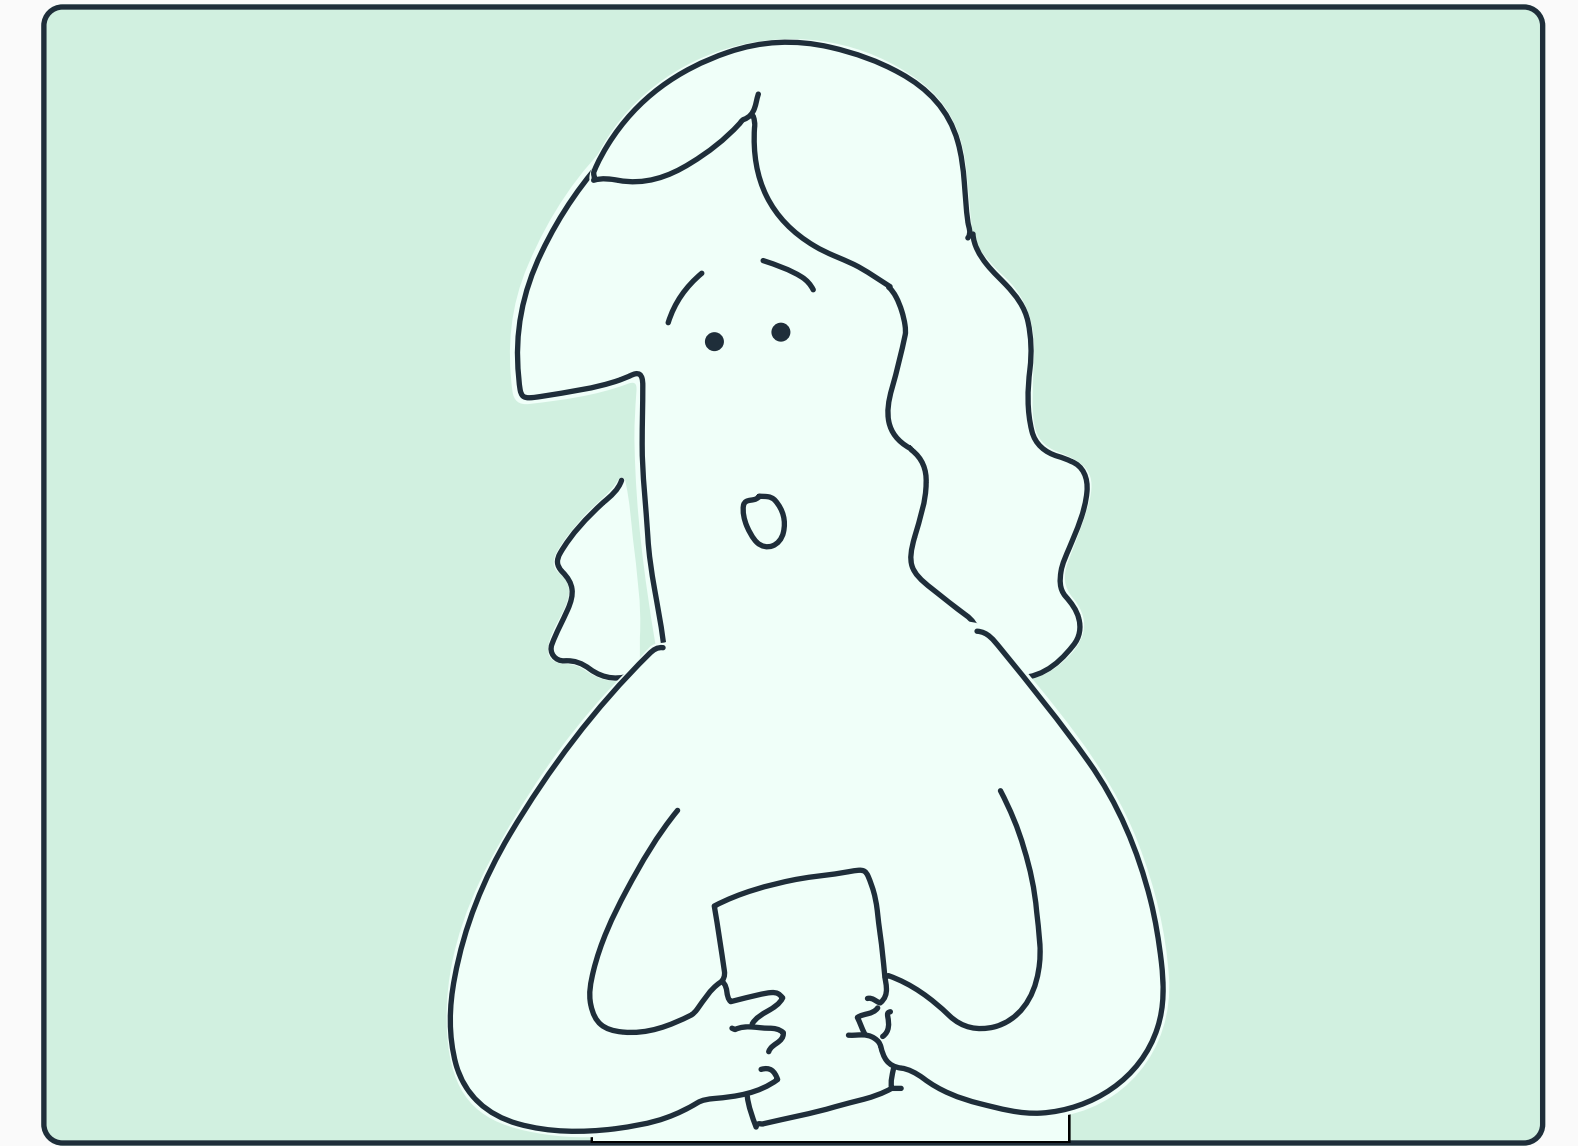

User story / Scenario: Lily learns about tarot while they work

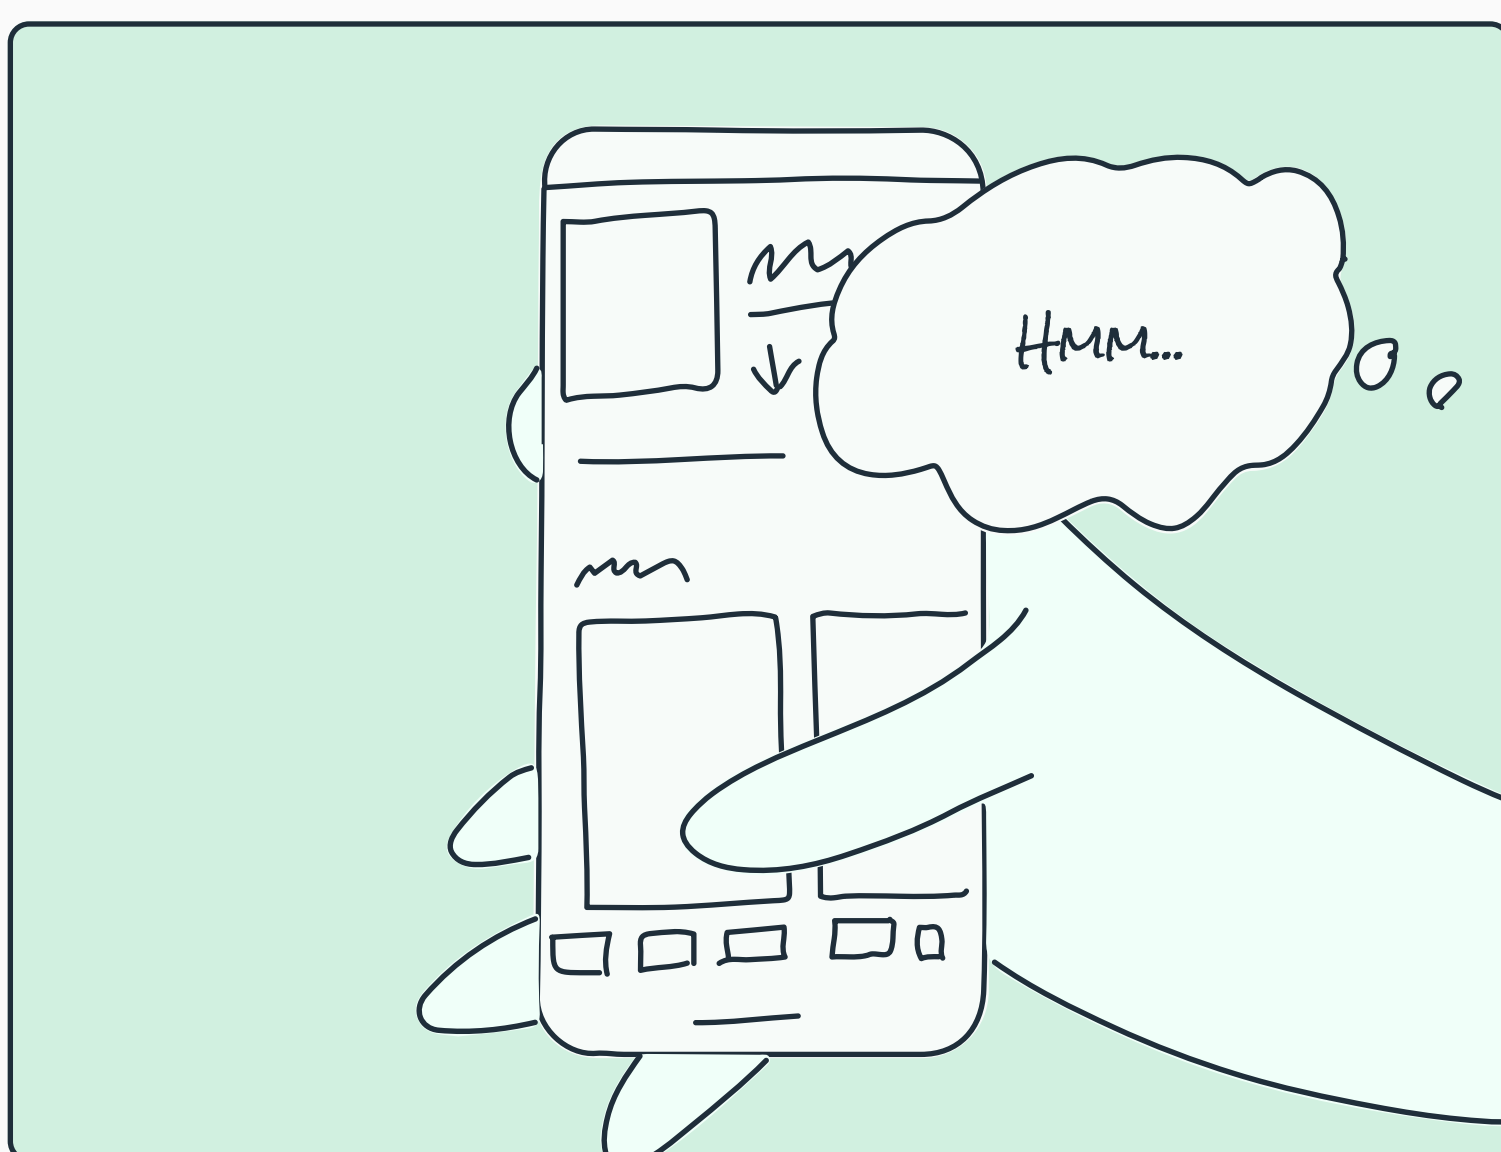

It is a slow day at the shop where Lily works and they are feeling bored.

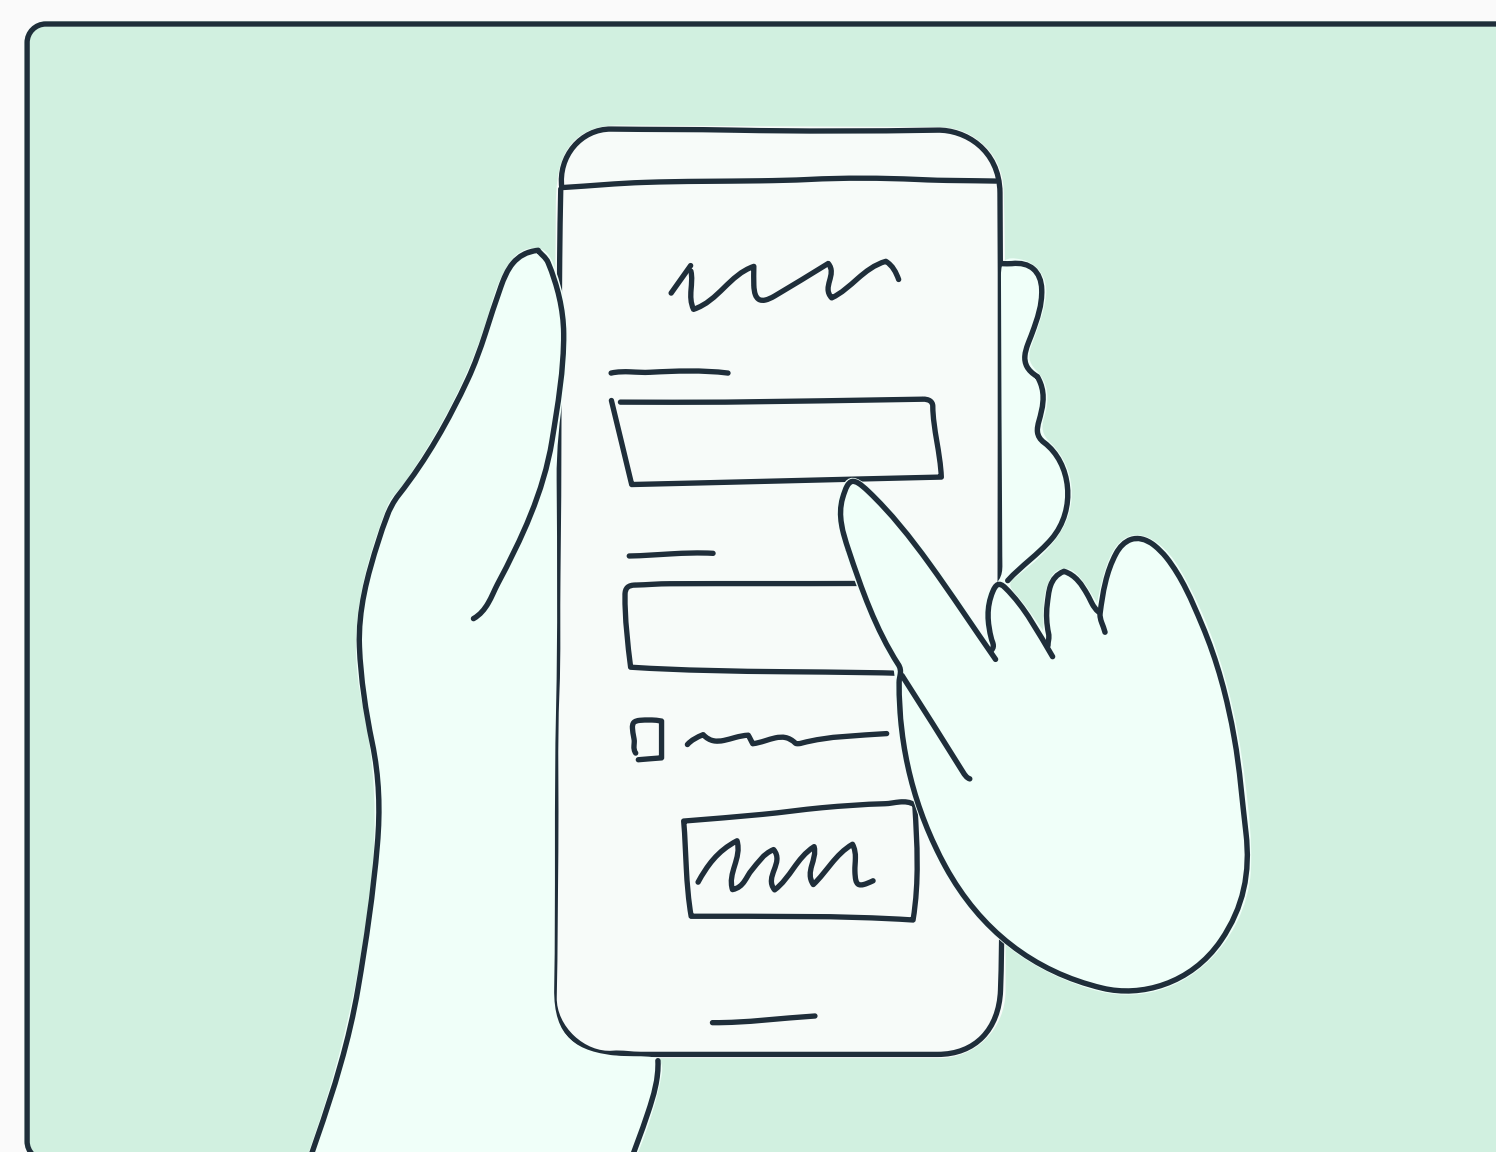

They pull out their phone to pass the time and start thumbing through their folder of new age apps.

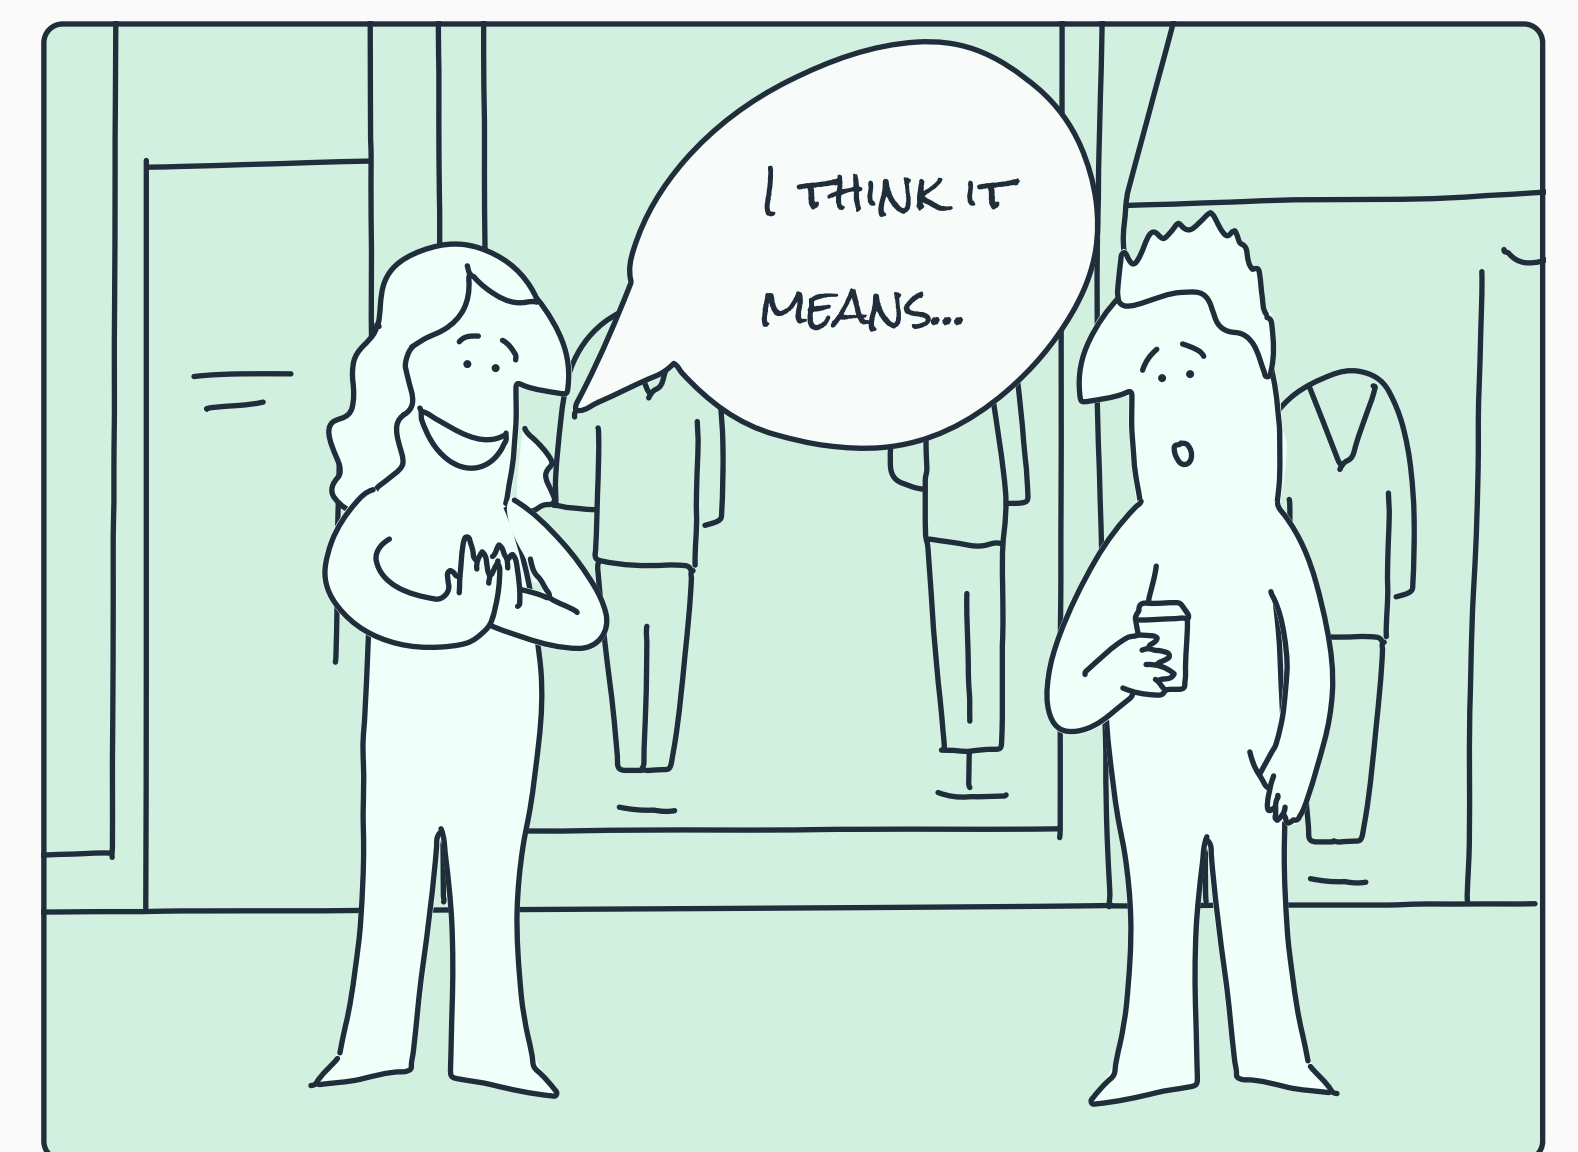

They open their tarot app and complete their daily reading.

Lily remembers that they drew a tarot card at home that morning and decides to look that card up.

They search for the card in the app and learn that the shop was also slow the last time they drew that card!

Lily thinks this is interesting and decides to chat about it with a coworker.
